

One Others

2020-06-24 by Pastor Sharon Tidd

The New Testament Scriptures are filled with 'one another' commands that are given to guide us in our relationships with fellow believers and with those outside of the church as well.

Read and reflect on these verses/passages. What are the 'one another' commands cited in each verse/passage? (Note: Some are given as a negative.) What does it mean, practically speaking, to live this command out in your relationships with Christian brothers and sisters? What does it mean to live this command out in your relationships with people outside of the church? Which are easiest for you to obey? Which are more challenging for you? Why? What might you need to do to strengthen your ability, in the Spirit, to fulfill each one of these commands?
